

Section 17.45.050 B.4.a. of the Davenport Municipal Code regulates temporary signs as follows:

- Duration: the display of temporary signs shall not exceed twenty-one (21) days during any one hundred eighty (180) day period. There is an exception for grand openings, sixty (60) days immediately following their opening for business.
- Number & Size: A property is limited to one (1) double faced sign, banner, or pennant not exceeding thirty-two (32) square feet in area or two (2) single faced signs, banners, or pennant not exceeding thirty-two (32) square feet in area or a single inflatable advertising balloon.
- Setback: the sign shall comply with the setback of the underlying zoning district.
- Height: the sign, banner, or pennant shall not exceed the height of the principal structure. An inflatable advertising balloon may exceed the height of the principal structure.

Mobile and/or portable signs are prohibited (such as the box signs with or without arrows).

All temporary signs must be placed 10 feet inside the property line and not in the public right of way.
